

Time: 20 minutes

Task 1

Task 1

Complete the sentences below with words connected with the environment, then use the words to complete this crossword.

[illegible]

- 0 Many animals are now protected as a result of wildlife conservation programmes.
26 We need to reduce the quantity of ..... gases we release into the atmosphere.
27 Politicians talk a lot about ..... change, but don't do enough to prevent it.
28 Rising sea ..... may mean that some islands will disappear.
29 I believe it's time to reduce our dependence on ..... fuels.
30 Solar power and wind power are two forms of ..... energy.
31 The ideal situation would be to drive cars with zero .....
32 Tigers and pandas are ..... species.

Task 2

Fill in the gaps using one word.

Groceries on the web

Shopping for a family can 0) be a nightmare. Going to the supermarket with a small child is a race against the clock; you have to be quick, 33) ..... he gets bored and throws a tantrum. Then, 34) ..... you have all the shopping you'll need for the next week, you are confronted 35) ..... several queues to choose 36) ..... – and believe me, you will make the wrong choice. And the grief doesn't stop 37) .....; the miserable checkout staff, the struggle home with cheap bags and swollen fingers – the list goes on and on. Shopping online, 38) ....., can be a life-saver. You choose all your groceries online, and the store picks them 39) ..... for you and delivers them to your door. Another plus point is 40) ....., when shopping online, you tend to stick 41) ..... a list, and so avoid those superfluous items that you convince 42) ..... you absolutely have to have when you're there in person. Not 43) ..... able to see what you're buying is a disadvantage, 44) ..... the descriptions are good, and 45) ..... a million trips you know what everything looks like anyway.

TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS TO THE ANSWER SHEET!